DETAILS: Daniel Wong will deliver public comments regarding his run for Fort Bend County Judge. Daniel will take questions from attendees and will be available to answer questions from the media. Media kit will be provided.

Daniel Wong is a business leader, engineer, and man of faith running for Fort Bend County Judge. Born in the Portuguese colony of Macao, Dr. Wong immigrated to the U.S. with nothing but determination and found his home in Texas. He is the founder and CEO of Tolunay Wong Engineers, a firm with over 400 employees and 13 offices statewide. A former Sugar Land City Councilmember and longtime Chairman of the Texas Board of Professional Engineers, Dr. Wong also serves on the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board. He was a trustee of the former Fort Bend Economic Development Council, is a member of the Fort Bend Business Coalition, and serves as an Elder at Fort Bend Community Church. Dr. Wong is an adjunct professor in the Engineering Department at the University of Houston. Dr. Wong is running to bring steady leadership, smart growth, and lasting values to Fort Bend County.
